STAINED GLASS WINDOW DEDICATION

APRIL MEMORY VERSE

"I am the way, the truth and the life; no man cometh unto the Father, but by me."
~John 14:6, KJV

From My Heart to Yours:

Holy Week Celebrations

Holy Week is April 10-17, beginning with Palm Sunday and culminating on Easter Sunday. During this week we focus on the last days of Jesus' life, his death on the cross, and his resurrection from the grave to be exalted to the right hand of God, the Father.

This year Palm Sunday will have a dual meaning. We will focus on our Lord's sacrifice for our sins, and we will dedicate our new stained glass windows.

David Soos, owner of Soos Stained Glass, Inc. will be with us to describe and present the windows to the congregation. Mr. Soos created and installed the baptistry and balcony stained glass windows when our Sanctuary was built in 1985. Now, thirty-seven years later, he is back with the completion of the original plan for stained glass windows on the sides of the Sanctuary.

The service also will include a Children's Moment with Shelly Wagner talking about one or more of the stories from Jesus' life depicted in the windows. Elton Gray, Chair of our Design Team, will share a dedicatory prayer related to the windows. Other members of the Design Team include, Dale Clancy, Sharon Hensley, Gretchen Hewitt, and Willard Zeiser. We also thank Gwen Dallas, dedicated church historian, and Joe Coker, gifted photographer, for their contribution.

The service will center on music appropriate for Holy Week selected by Benjie Harlan. My sermon is titled "If I Be Lifted Up" and is based on John 12:32-33.

Easter Sunday, April 17, will be a glorious experience in worship. We claim the wonderful promise of Jesus, "Because I live, you too shall live" (John 14:19). My sermon is "Because of Easter" with Philippians 3:20-21 as the focus.

Thankfully, Covid is now on the decline, and more and more folks are returning to church. We welcome you.

An Interesting Story

Sam and Christine Fodera live in Louisville, Kentucky. A priest asked Sam, an electrician, to do some wiring in their Catholic Church. Sam had to climb above the altar, crawl over the ceiling, balancing himself on the rafters. Concerned for her husband's safety, Christine waited anxiously in a pew below. Unknown to her, a group of visitors gathered in a nearby vestibule. They paid little attention to her and just assumed she was praying. That all changed when they saw Christine glance toward the ceiling and heard her cry out, "Sam, are you up there yet? Did you make it okay?" A gasp came from the vestibule when Sam's hearty voice echoed down, "Yes, I made it up here just fine."

This humorous story conveys an important truth. Our loved ones who have died in Christ have made it up there just fine. If God is with us, and He is through His Spirit; and if God is with our loved ones who have gone before us, and He is; then heaven cannot be far away!

Recall the words of John, "Behold the tabernacle of God is with men, and He will dwell with them, and they shall be his people. God himself will be with them and be their God. And God will wipe away every tear from their eyes; there shall be no more death, nor sorrow, nor crying. There shall be no more pain, for the former things have passed away" (Revelation: 21:3-4, NKJV).

Comfort one another with these words, and have a joyous Easter.

Your Pastor,

Jon M. Stubblefield

APRIL 2022

"There shall be showers of blessing!" May you find many blessings this month, including some great books from our library:

Agenda 21 and Agenda 21 : Into the Shadows (a post-apocalyptic thriller) - Glenn Beck. It was once named America, but now it is just "the Republic." Following the worldwide implementation of a UN-led program called Agenda 21, the once-proud people of America have become obedient residents who live in barren, brutal compounds and serve the autocratic, merciless Authorities. Woken up to the harsh reality of her life and her family's future inside the Republic, Emmeline begins to search for the truth. Why are all citizens confined to ubiquitous concrete living spaces? Why are Compounds guarded by Gatekeepers who track all movements? Why are food, water and energy rationed so strictly? And, most importantly, why are babies taken from their mothers at birth? As Emmeline begins to understand the true objectives of Agenda 21 she realizes that she is up against far more than she ever thought. With the Authorities closing in, and nowhere to run, Emmeline embarks on an audacious plan to save her family and expose the Republic—but is she already too late?

With Love, Wherever You Are - Dandi Daley Mackall. After a whirlwind romance and wedding, Helen Eberhart Daley, an army nurse, and Lieutenant Frank Daley, M.D. are sent to the front lines of Europe with only letters to connect them for months at a time. Surrounded by danger and desperately wounded patients, they soon find that only the war seems real—and their marriage more and more like a distant dream. If they make it through the war, will their marriage survive?

Hidden Justice Series - Cara Putman:

Beyond Justice - Hayden McCarthy is at a point in her law career where winning one more big case could catapult her into a partnership within the law firm where she has already managed to excel--except that the case her boss hands her has all the markings of career implosion. She will have to force the federal government to have to defend its actions within a Texas juvenile detention center for illegal immigrants. A young man died there, and the deeper Hayden digs, the more complicated the story becomes.

Imperfect Justice - To the world it seems obvious: Kaylene Adams killed her daughter and then was shot by police. Attorney Emilie Wesley knows a different story: Kaylene would never hurt anyone and was looking for a way out of a controlling, abusive relationship. Her death shakes Emilie's belief that she can make a difference for women in violent marriages. Self-doubt plagues her as she struggles to continue her work in the wake of the tragedy.

Delayed Justice - Jaime Nichols went to law school to find the voice she never had as a child and her determination to protect girls and women in the path of harm drives her in ways both spoken and unspoken. As Jaime, now a criminal defense attorney, prepares to press charges against someone who wronged her long ago, she must face not only her demons but also the unimaginable forces that protect the powerful man who tore her childhood apart.
