Interim Children's Director

I am happy to report that the church has called Carolyn Moffitt to serve as Interim Children's Director. Carolyn and her husband, Wendell, are known and loved by our congregation. They are both involved in important areas of ministry in the life of our church. Carolyn will begin her work immediately, using her gifts to oversee our work with children. Shelly Wagner will continue sharing the Children's Sermon in Sunday Morning Worship.

Stained Glass Windows

In Business Meeting on August 18, the church voted to contract with Soos Stained Glass in North Little Rock to design and install ten stained glass windows in the Sanctuary at a cost of $51,729.65. This figure includes sales tax.

David Soos and his company designed and built the beautiful stained glass baptistry window when our Sanctuary was constructed in 1985. This company is responsible for many stained glass windows in churches around the state.

The approved recommendation stipulates that all of the funds be raised before the project begins. If funds are not raised within 90 days, the church will revisit the proposal. The good news is that church families have already committed $31,000 toward this project. Additional gifts are needed from the congregation, with the understanding that they will be given above regular budget contributions. Pray about your part in this endeavor.

The proposal retains the current windows which will serve as storm windows to protect the new stained glass windows. The stained glass windows will be sealed in place, thus providing a double barrier from the outside weather. The blinds, which are showing the wear of many years, will be taken down.

The church also approved a committee of five people to work with the Soos company to finalize the composition of the windows. The Pastor is charged with forming the committee from a list of volunteers who wish to serve. Elton Gray has agreed to chair this committee.

Women's Bible Study

Ruth Manweiler will begin a weekly Bible study for women on Tuesday, September 7, at 10 AM. The title of the study is "Simply the Psalms." The group will meet in Fellowship Hall. Ruth is an outstanding Bible teacher. You will be blessed as she leads in the study of selected Psalms. A sign-up sheet is on the greeter's table in the Sanctuary vestibule or call the church office.

Emergency Contact Information

Recently, in Morning Worship we asked the congregation to fill out emergency contact forms with the names of two contacts. This information will be kept in the church office and will be accessible by the church staff only. Why do we need this information? There are times when a church member is hospitalized or facing some other emergency, and we have no way to contact family members. An example will suffice. Not long ago, I was visiting a church member at a local hospital late at night. It was an emergency situation. The hospital staff needed someone to give permission for treatment of the patient. I was not qualified to do so and did not know the names of children or kin or their phone numbers. It took several hours for your church staff to track down the information we needed. If you have not filled out an emergency contact form, call the church or drop by the office. Thank you for your help with this.

Your Pastor,
Jon Stubblefield

SEPTEMBER 2021

Second Chances series by Terri Blackstock - This series about people experiencing a second chance in life begins with Never Again Goodbye. Normally, Wes Grayson would have been attracted to the striking woman with the camera. But this woman has clearly been stalking Amy, his adoptive daughter and the center of his life, and a threat to Amy is a threat to Wes. Laney Fields has no desire to threaten anyone, just a longing to see the child she'd brought into the world six years ago and then been forced to release for adoption. But when she learns that Amy's adoptive mother has died, Laney becomes determined to play a part in her daughter's life. Between a man and woman torn by past losses, present fears, and the paradox of their growing fascination for each other, stands one small child. She could be the object of distrust that will drive them apart or the agent of faith in God that can bring them together. Additional books in the series include When Dreams Cross, Blind Trust, and Broken Wings.

Wild at Heart series by Mary Connealy - Books include Tried and True, Now and Forever, and Fire and Ice. In the first of this series about three sisters homesteading the property they earned serving in the Civil War as "boys", Kylie plans to make the most of the years before she can sell her property and return to the luxury of life back East. In Now and Forever, Shannon Wilde is the middle sister--and the one who loves animals. She's established her own homestead and is raising sheep for their wool. Things are going fine...until Shannon gets swept over a cliff by Matthew Tucker! Finally in Fire and Ice, Bailey Wilde has been living disguised as a man for a while, but when Gage Coulter comes to drive her off her homestead, he quickly realizes he's dealing with a woman--a very tough, very intriguing woman at that.

Want something to help cool you off during the dog days of summer? Try this Christmas story:

A Christmas Journey Home: Miracle in the Manger by Kathi Macias - A very special nativity story that shows the presence of our Lord in the most difficult of circumstances. Isabella and Francisco Alcantara flee from their home near Ensenada, Mexico, when Isabella's parents and siblings are murdered in gang- and drug-related violence. Isabella is pregnant with their first child. However, the circumstances that greet them across the border turn out to be worse than what they left behind and make them question their decision. Miriam Nelson, whose border patrol agent husband was killed by drug smugglers, is filled with bitterness and anger. Through a miracle only God can perform, these two women meet on Christmas Eve and discover the true meaning of Christ's birth. This book is thought-provoking and Kathi Macias has provided an excellent read.

Happy Fall! Seasons change, but ... Christ is the same yesterday, today, and forever! – Hebrews 13:8
