From my heart to yours:

Patrick of Ireland

Sometimes we need to consider heroes of our faith—those who have lived before us and served the Lord faithfully, even sacrificially. The following should interest and inspire all of us, but especially those of us who have Irish blood flowing in our veins.

Patrick was born around 390 AD most likely near Hadrian's Wall in northern England. When he was only sixteen, he was captured by a raiding party from Ireland and sold as a slave to a petty king. In a moment, the privileges of home, of comfort and security, and plans for the future were gone. Somehow he met up with a company of fellow Christians, probably slaves like himself. It would have been tempting to despair, to curse God, and beg to die; but in the midst of adversity, Patrick's faith grew and his personal relationship with God sustained him. In his Confessions he wrote:

After I came to Ireland and so tended sheep every day, I often prayed in the day time . . . up to a hundred prayers and at night nearly as many, and I stayed in the forest, and on the mountains and before daylight I used to be roused to prayer in the snow, and in frost and rain, and I felt no harm, nor was there any inclination to take things easily in me, because as I see now the Spirit seethed in me.

After six years Patrick escaped his captors and eventually returned home to England. But his heart was still in Ireland where he determined to return as a missionary. This he did and advanced the cause of Christ in his adopted land. His story is part of our spiritual heritage.

Let me share some lines from a hymn Patrick wrote. It is known as "The Deer's Cry" or "The Breastplate of St. Patrick." Consider the following stanza in connection with Acts 17:28, "For in him we live and move and have our being."

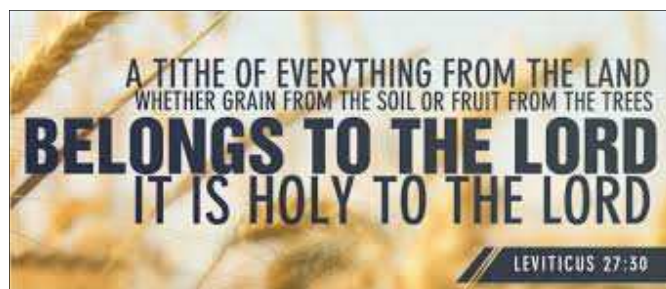

*Christ be with me, Christ within me,
Christ behind me, Christ before me,
Christ beside me, Christ to win me,
Christ to comfort and restore me,
Christ beneath me, Christ above me,
Christ in quiet, Christ in danger,
Christ in hearts of all that love me,
Christ in mouth of friends and stranger.*

Back to School

August is here and it is time for back to school. Take note of the front of the Banner and events related to children, women's ministry and our Music Ministry.

BRBC invites the women of the church and friends in the community to join us on August 11 for a presentation called "What's Your Talent?"

The event will take place from 10:30 am to 2 pm starting with a salad luncheon brought by those attending. A fashion show of personal bridal gowns and memories of that "special day" along with music and a presentation on talents of service will be enjoyed.

New Members Sought as Choir Returns to Leadership Role in September

After taking a refreshing summer break, our choir will kick off the fall season with a renewal ice cream fellowship August 30 at 6:55 pm in fellowship hall. At that time new members will be introduced and plans for the fall season will be announced. The regular schedule will resume Wednesday, September 6 with the first rehearsal at 6:55 pm.

Recent losses in membership due to deaths, illnesses and families moving have depleted our roster. New church members and former choir members are urged to prayerfully consider making a commitment to serve on a regular basis in the choir. For more information contact Duane Blakley, Minister of Music (922-0692, brbc3music@att.net).

Mike and Judy Dacus
166 Maple Leaf Circle, Hot Springs
His cell 501-520-7064
Her cell 501-520-7057

Judy and Mike Dacus have lived in Hot Springs since 2009. Several years ago, they learned about Barcelona Road Baptist through the Arkansas Cooperative Baptist Fellowship Director.

Mike and Judy met when they were grad students at UAMS. After grad school, Mike resumed his career as an infantry officer in the U.S. Army, and Judy taught microbiology at several colleges and universities. After Mike retired from the Army, both of them taught until retiring as community college professors.

Although retired, they still volunteer with local organizations. Mike works with the Disabled American Veterans (DAV) organization, helping disabled veterans and working to fund scholarships for the vets and their families. Judy volunteers at the Hot Springs Senior Center.

Both of them have served as ordained deacons in various churches along the way. Judy was ordained at Manassas Baptist in Manassas, Virginia. Mike was ordained at First Baptist Church in Las Cruces, New Mexico. Judy also served three years on the Coordinating Council of the Cooperative Baptist Fellowship of Arkansas, and Mike is now serving a term on that council.

They both love fishing, being outdoors, and many activities associated with the outdoor life. Mike and Judy also have four grandchildren and one step-grandchild to take up the rest of their spare time and energy.

Betty Whittle
12 Balenciaga Way
501-226-3298

In the four months Betty Whittle has lived in the Village, she has visited several churches. She found out about BRBC from a folder at the Welcome Center. After visiting three times, she decided this was the right church home for her.

Betty lived in Allen, TX, north of Dallas, before she moved here. A daughter and son-in-law live in this area, and soon her other daughter, a granddaughter, and four great-grandchildren will be settling into their own homes, too.

Originally from Charleston, SC, Betty has made friends and taken good care of people, everywhere she lived. She was most recently the Nursing Home Administrator for a home in Allen, Texas and took care of the residents and over 100 staff members. She said she loved getting to know the people and helping to care for them. Betty also cared for her husband and son who both passed away after battling cancer.

As soon as her broken wrist is healed, Betty will be able to get back to sewing, embroidery, and playing Chicken Foot—which may be related to the Turkey Tracks domino game played around here. She says her friends always had a regular get-together at a restaurant then went to one member's house to play Chicken Foot. About halfway through the game, they would take a break and enjoy dessert provided by their host.

Betty said she loves Bible study and will be visiting several Sunday School classes before making up her mind which one to join.
