SCOTT FRAKER

Star of the Pierce Arrow Theater,

FEBRUARY

MEMORY VERSE

"Make a joyful noise
unto the Lord all ye lands. Serve the Lord with gladness; come before his presence with singing"

From my heart to yours:

We welcome Scott Fraker back to BRBC. Below, you will find his biography. Scott is a gifted preacher, singer and entertainer.

Scott Fraker is originally from Niangua, MO. After High School, Scott attended Missouri State University in Springfield, MO. Music has always been a part of Scott's life and he has been singing since the age of 3. Believe it or not, Scott even sang in a Girl's Choir until age 15. Scott's four and-a-half octave range as a bass singer had not yet been discovered. "My Senior year of High School was the first time I was able to sing with a Boy's Choir," Scott admits. With a change in voice, Scott unleashed his four and-a-half octave range—singing as high as he does low—on the world of music to rave reviews. In college he performed with the MSU Traveling Choir and with the acappella group "The Wingtips", who appeared on the Today Show, Good Morning America, and the CBS Morning Show in 1990. Scott recalls that the last thing he ever expected to do was sing with three other guys. While Scott was with the Wingtips, he got to perform with the Legendary Chuck Berry, Jerry Lee Lewis, Frankie Avalon, and he even got to sing for then President George Bush.

Scott left The Wingtips in 1993 after receiving a call from one of the guys he sang with in Choir at Missouri State who was now singing with the gospel group Chosen Few at Silver Dollar City in Branson, MO. Scott soon accepted a position with Chosen Few and remained at Silver Dollar City until their final show in October 2001.

From 1993-1996 Scott and Chosen Few were the House Gospel Group at Silver Dollar City where they sang to over 2.5 million people every year. In 1996 Chosen Few won the "Nashville Starbound" Contest performing on the stage of the Grand Ole Opry. In 1997, SDC moved them to the 4000 seat Echo Hollow Amphitheater there inside the park where they headlined the 2 hour "Sundown Jubilee Show" 6 nights a week. They were awarded the Show of the Year in the 2001 Branson Fan Awards.

Even with a very successful show, the guys knew that God was calling them to a work far more precious than the lights of Branson MO. "We spent almost every night on our knees in our dressing room that 2001 season," Scott recalled. In November 2001, Scott and the guys left Silver Dollar City to begin their fulltime ministry on the road. From 2001-2005 Scott recalls them singing in over 1000 churches and civic organizations. They went Coast to Coast and even had the opportunity to do a crusade in Nicaragua where they witnessed a little over 2,100 people come to the Saving Knowledge of Jesus Christ. In November of 2005 God again was working on the hearts of the guys, but this time He was working on them in an individual fashion. "I knew that God had called me to preach in the 11th grade", Scott said. "I had just chosen to run away from that calling on my life". After being in front of millions of people over the last several years, Scott's heart was being re-tuned for the work that God would set before him. He knew it was time to once again to step out on faith and lean on the promise that God would make a way.

Scott is now traveling, Singing, Preaching, and Teaching all over the United States. He has a tremendous burden for the lost and a great burning to see our Churches Revived again. His passion for these things is very evident in his services.

"There are so many great things that God wants us to experience. It's my burden and my passion... to help people leave the "Valley of Regret" behind...and to re-direct them to their rightful place...At the KINGS TABLE"!

Scott still entertains in Branson, MO at the Pierce Arrow Theater.

Jon Stubblefield

Rolla and Pam Carnine
4 Henil Lane

New members Rolla and Pam Carnine were looking for a church home and loved what was said about BRBC on line and decided to visit and see for themselves.

They've been in the Village since September of 2019. Although originally from Oregon, they actually moved to the Village from Houston, TX. In Houston they managed self-storage facilities.

Traveling, especially in their RV, has been a favorite pastime for the Carnines.

They have two daughters—one in Portland, Oregon, and one in Melbourne, Australia.

Rolla is a "project man" and enjoys woodworking and building furniture. Pam is enjoying the Tuesday morning Bible class.

Kyra Allen was baptized December 15 and her picture was not available at the time the Banner was published.

Jack and Judy Roberson
2 Coronado Drive

Coming to the Village in July, 2019, Jack and Judy Roberson visited other churches but found the members here so friendly, they knew they had found a church home. Jack was a motorcycle rider and loved this area and he said "it doesn't have 6" of snow." Originally they are from Beaverton, MI, but are coming to us from Utica, NY.

Jack is retired from railroading and Judy from the medical and dental field. They enjoy traveling and Jack is a woodworker who likes carpentry.

They have a total of six children and 14 grandchildren who are scattered across the country in TX, AZ, and MI.

They are members of the Agape Sunday School Class and are talented singers who

D. J. Bratton was baptized December 15 and his picture was not available at the time the Banner was published.

HEART BEAT

Welcome 2020!

Did you make a New Year's Resolution? Most people do but don't stick to it. Here's one that we do everyday without even thinking about it - walking!

The wonderful thing about walking is you don't have to sweat or put out much effort to see results. The key is consistency. Make it a priority to plan at least 3 days each week for your activity. You can either set a time limit or distance. Do you work during the day? On your morning break, walk around the building with a friend! Are you retired? Even better! Walk around the block or hit the trails around the beautiful Village! If time is your thing, start with 10-15 minutes each walk in your first week, and add 5 minutes with each week. You prefer distance? Start with one time around the building where you work and add a lap each week. Or if you're retired or have the day off, check out the fitness center's indoor or outdoor track. Don't let the weather detour your plans.

There are many benefits to walking:

- * increase metabolism
- * release endorphins - "happy hormones"
- * decrease pain
- * lose a few pounds
- * increase in stamina
- * increase in vitamin D
- * hang out with friends

The benefits are so great, you'll get creative finding the time for your activity. Plus, everything is more fun with a friend or two! I highly recommend good walking shoes, a walking stick, your phone, and a friend!

So, let's lace up those shoes and pound pavement to a healthier 2020!

Disclaimer: Before beginning any activity, make sure you obtain clearance from your family doctor.

FEBRUARY 2020

The season of love is upon us! I hope you all are ready to shower your sweethearts (whether they are husbands/wives, kids/grandkids, fur babies, or whomever) with love and kisses! Listed below is a small sample of the romances we have available in our library:

Texas Dreams trilogy - Amanda Cabot: historic romantic fiction with a touch of suspense.

Ransome trilogy - Kaye Dacus: combines the wit, romance, and social commentary of Jane Austen with the seafaring adventures of Horatio Hornblower.

Coming to America series - Robin Hatcher: four books telling the stories of immigrants making a new life in America in the late 19th century.

Navy Brides series - Debbie Macomber: these books salute the men and women in the U.S. Navy, and the families and friends who support them.

Swan House - Elizabeth Musser: a coming-of-age novel set in 1960's Atlanta. Good for high-school age through adult.

Love Unleashed series - Dana Mentink: for dog lovers. The first in the series, "Sit, Stay, Love", is a Christian book about a cranky professional baseball player, a dog sitter who is really an out of work teacher, and a mischievous geriatric dog. It's about love, second chances, and learning what your true identity is.

NEW SERIES:

Brother James series - Chris Lambert: an enthralling story of an ordinary boy with an extraordinary brother. This five-book series includes "Growing Up with the Messiah", "Toward Jerusalem", "Among All Nations", "Anticipation", "Underground", and
